St. Luke

Go forward for the new year and pray Father as we begin another year we thank you for your goodness and mercy in the past. Strengthen us as we trust in thee in Jesus name. Amen.

January 1 - 8, at 11 a.m. a sizeable group had assembled to the regular preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church. Rev. J. C. McLaughlin was present and as this was noted as auxiliary day he took charge relatively. Text: Daniel 3-17,18 and 19. Subject: "Make a Daily Resolution to God." This was his challenge to all officers in the church acitivities. This was a powerful message well taken. Rev. J. Ruddy from New year was rostrum guest. He and his wife are visiting his wife's mother, Mrs. Esther Callaham, who is under a handicap. Choir # 2 Adult gave the music. The offering was good.

Among the kind things done in the community the St. Luke Church people and pastor meet at church on Dec. 22nd and fix a large number of packages of fruit and other items and sent out to the sick and shut-in. A fine response was obtained from this.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Nance, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and little daughter, of Baltimore, Md., were overnight guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada and Mr. and Mrs. James Tweedy. They were here to attend the beautiful home wedding of the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tweedy. Miss Kattie Yuille was married to Mr. David Ganes at 2 p.m. Dec. 24, 1977. The bride wore a white lovely dress and veil of floor length with the sweeping train. The groom was dressed in a white suit. The maids were beautiful in pastel colors. Little Miss Cynthia Yuille was flower barrier and Mr. James A. Little, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. It was all very lovely. Mrs. Olie Smith, real mother of the bride, was co-hostess to Mrs. Tweedy and a bountiful supply of food was available to the guests. After the wedding and another reception by the parents of the groom in Charlotte Court House the pair went to parts of South Carolina for a honeymoon. They will live in Lynchburg and Mrs. Ganes will be in the teaching field. Mr. Ganes is employed in Lynchburg. Rev. J. E. McLaughlin was the officiating minister.

Mr. Wesley Canada, from overseas, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Canada, of Richmond, Miss Remona Canada, of Baltimore, Md., were Christmas visitors in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canada and also their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada.

Mrs. Eva Hamlette, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is a visitor in the home of Mrs. Grace Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada went in to see his sister, Mrs. Ida Daniels Sunday, Jan. 1.

The senior citizens will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Canada January 9, 10:30 a.m.

The first white man known to have voyaged completely down the Mississippi was Robert Cavelier de La Salle in the 17th century.
